

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 24.

FURSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD (Including Postage):

Tel. 32..... No. 10,030

Intered at the Post-Office at New York as sec

EF BRANCH OFFICES WOFLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1907 BROADWAY. between 31st and 32d sts., New York.

EROOKLYN - 359 FULTON ST. HARLEM-News Department, 150 East 125tu St.; Advertisements at 237 East 115TH St. PHILADELPHIA, PA .- LEDGER BUILDING, 119 DUTE STEET, WASHINGTON 610 14TH ST. NOFFICE-32 COCESFUR ST., TRAVAL-

The Evening World Prints Associated Press News.

IS BEN AN OUTLAW, THEN?

Cape May, the No Man's Land of the East! The Summer capital of earth's Civil Justice Andrew J. Rogers, of the An- and be happy." right to a name! That is the startling uency in the National Legislature. news of the day from the resort where President Harrison is recreating these | 1 hear that President Purray, of the Fire

Cape May Point, originally incorpo- will warm his jacket if he does. rated as a seaside borough, under a law afterward pronounced unconstitutional, Street-Cleaning Commissioner Beattle was faithful private secretary, in a land of tor street. outlawry where there are no taxes, therefore, no schools, and where old undisputed sway about the sands.

paid, and a horrible thought suggests lickets is fixed at $3 each. itself. Is there a deep, dark plot behind own, have Wanamaker and fellow.con. is, I understand, expected to sail for New all night for want of a bed.
York next week, and will probably arrive. It rather upsets a man spirators lured President Ben, ELIJAH and Baby McKer, into this No-Man's Land that they might become imbued with its | White down at Newport, R. I., I noticed Simpson, it is woe to the region of nations used to be yellow in color, but now her conchif something be not done soon.

A POLICEMAN'S SHOT.

Early yesterday morning, in upper before he made the spurt he fired his revolver, and when he got the prisoner the latter was bleeding from a wound in the neck.

fired to save his own life or another's. begun an action for libel, claiming heavy. Then she counted him out ten pennies this she pays $1.50 a week rent and premiums According to published reports of the damages. The compensation of an appraiser and told him to go his way, and looked on the insurance policies of her husband, chare, it did not even assist him in catch. In such cases used formerly to be a charge ing his prisoner. In firing it the officer against the Insurance Company the property ferry-house. We who were looking on for food, fuel, clothing and expenses inciabused his privilege of carrying a loaded of which was appraised, and is said to have sort to such use is unavoidable.

Libels have been filed on the G. R. Booth by the widow of one and the son infant in her arms. of another victim of the late dynamite explosion on that vessel. They are based A young woman living in Gainesville, Tex. on the grounds that State and National laws were violated in bringing the explosive cargo to port, in Brooklyn, without warning of its nature and without due tien. Neal Don lives in the house that he built care in having it handled. These grounds should be sufficient to carry heavy damnges and set a healthful warning before the shippers. the shippers.

The story is old and familiar of the bayfield in all the neighborhood. He has sung a blindfolded prisoner who died, after his spaths since he was twelve years old, and whenever being the prisoner who died, after his the hay is ready for cutting he takes the leading arm had been slightly pricked, from the easth belief that dropping water which he then belief that dropping water which he then heard was really his own blood dripping away. In similar exercise, imagination has caused more than one death from hydrophobia. Its latest victim probably turtle was alive in his day. passed away at Rahway yesterday.

If the garbage men had known that Comptrol or Myzes bathed at Arverne. undoubtedly they would have dumped the scows off another part of the coast, It must be discouraging to the most conscientions official to fin I dead cats floating in the same salt water with himself.

A Massachusetts couple have been ont" for fifty-six years. Now they are in-both of them in the Hopkinton poorouse, having reached the same point by different routes. Perhaps they would have sound smoother sailing if they had mate it all up those years ago.

As to the question of tickets in '92, Blocks of Five DUDLEY says the Democrats will nominate Gosman, while Jon Manley, o Augusta, says Blaine will scrept the Republican nomination. With Parren already set forth by the Alliance, the campaign may begin at once.

What's this? Our own John L. Sul-LIVAN coldly received in the Sandwich Islands? Yet there is no doubt that the American alugger con'd fairly eat up tie most unregenerate caunibal of them all. You v. the missionaries have worked a un chief there.

The Chinese do not want religion nor missionar es. says a report. Sufficient unto every Celestial at home is his own idea of destiny.

It needs no argument to demonstrate why the authorities at Atlanta should deny the request that three little children of a murdered man be allowed to witness the execution of the murderer.

At last it hascome, "Yellows" have Inbitshed by the Press Publishing Company. attacked the Maryland peaches and blue is the prospect for the barvest.

> The Rapid Transit Commissioners light them with execution.

Mexicans are to introduce the firea'arm from the United States. Send addressed to Thomas Davy, in Boston." them Foraker.

An Orange woman took a policeman for a devil in church. And they called her insane.

Despond.

THE GLEANER.

I hear that ex-Civil Justice John A. Diebel. of the Tenth Assembly District, is disporting him that all was over; you could never himself in Berlin. He writes that he visited Prince Bismarck at his country seat and was no, never be his'n; farewell! Isn't that Le pleasantly received.

found in the fact that there is little or no Thomas the bounce?" business done in the Tenin District Court. The salary of the Judge is the same as that "Well here's the let'er, and you come Linda L. of any other Civil Justice who does ten times as much work.

greatest Republic, a patch of sea nexed District, is an ex-Congressman, have const, lawless, taxless, almost without ing once represented a New Jersey constitution obliged to you, "she said as she wiped the Package containing clothes. Ac

President Harrison is recreating these warm days and keeping up some work of stand for re-election. The followers of tous state between his bathing and fishing J. Heintz, in the Twenty-fourth Assembly landt, Vesey or Rector street, you will District, hope that he will, and say that they has lazily failed to take advantage of op-in a happy most when I called upon him yes-portunities for reincorporation. That is terday. He had just received a letter from terday. He had just received a letter from how it happens that the President lives William Fahnestock, of 2 Wall street, com- don't, you'll get such a trimming down as and swins and consults ELIJAH, the plimenting him on the clean condition of Rec. will last you for a month. One day, after | 11 seems very strange that people should raffied off. It is a two-story frame business, and has been used by the Tammany Hall ormal me all the cross eyed, hald headed, bow-ganization of the annexed district since 1880.

legged, spindle shanked names you ever legged, spindle shanked names you ever and suffering mertal agony, a young man and suffering mertal agony. ocean and the Sea Grove Association hold and has been used by the Tammany Hall or-In the face of these revealed facts, mem. A new building is about to be erected, and the legged, spindle shanked names you ever ory brings up the old story of the gift inembers of the body take this means of get- read of. She abused my grandfather and cottage for which $10,000 was afterwards ting rid of the old one. The price of the grandmother, and my forty other blood athlete.

and attract a great deal of attention.

. . .

WORLDLINGS.

Nathaniel Holland, of Barre, Me., though ninets

VAGRANT VERSES-

The Wandering Sunbeam A ray of Summer simshine fell Athwart a window pane; And paned as if it could not tell Which way to turn again.

A moment only lingering there, Hold ray is leaped the space, And glained into two eyes upturned, Ah melso sweet a place.

Flashing thro' leagues of upper air Through obsains vast of blue. Gladly it paused here. For more fair Were maiden's oyes so true.

Coquetting with her waving hair And glisting on blue dress. For gown and spice a sight most rare-were matched to investmess.

But glauring back to eyes again The sundeam a dashes go: it could not on duri cloth remain When syssituite—ah no:

Dance, levely sunbram, everywhere, Hatho carin in hely give, No sucket year with these compare Ne as easter glatter, I snow W. E. Wondray, in Wilesbarre Leads.

A Cointrast. He sat on a board at the baselell game,
And troiled in the bitratog and the have every player's Cirristian name,
And, if any one scored a run,
He danced, and relied, and greer red in the face,
And shouted, and tossed his hat,
For he, as you have guessed, was a baseBall crank and they sot like that.

He sat in a cushioned broad-size pew in a cool and quiet thurch. An is quirined as you would perhaps, if you Were a subsoling and feared the burch. He heaved a sight then the uninter said. Amer. and he grabbed blacks. For he was man- male stuged.

And in whereh they are like that.

Suscretile Jour

Enough. chief a rocket in the air, it fell to earth. I knew not where it fell to earth. I knew not where itati next day, with range profound,
The man it fell on came around
it less time than it take to tell,
it less time than it take to tell,
it can be also and the state of the control of the its chowed me where that rocket fell; Aut now I do they greatly care for shoot more rockets in the air.

— Fee Mosem, for Merodiya

A Close Shave for Thomas. When the letter-collector whose route please the people with plans. Now to de- takes in the box at the bridge entrance got ground there yesterday morning he Help Swell the Free Doctor Fund The Campbell House Guests Are found a girl waiting to say to him :

I dropped a letter in here last night

"Wasn't it stamped?"

Oh. yes, sir," Properly directed?"

"Very properly." "Then what's wrong?" "Well, sir : I suppose I'll have to tell Oh, Giants! come out of the Slough of you," she blushingly replied. "You see, we are engaged,"

Year "I got a letter from him which made Lilian, Beatrice and Sophy. me mad.

" I see. And so you sat down and wrote Mar Kompff the way of it?" "That's exactly the way of it."

I am told that the reason so many can-"Hurried up and posted the letter; didates are in the field for the Civil Justice- went home and had a cry; woke up this L ship in the Tenth Judicial District is to be this morning to wish you hadn't given A. M. Morphy.

> over to the Postmaster and arrange matters, and then go ahead and marry Thomas All contributions sent to "The Even-tears from her big blue eyes and followed run across the old woman known as World." "Old Moll." She has a basket of cakes and caudies, and she has queer ways raffied off. It is a two-story frame building. scarcely a second's interval. She called mutable.

but when you come to understand her ing your eyes in Al fashion no one ten through it all-is able to leave his bed. man and footman wear red top boots and feet away could tell that she wasn't m. His home in the mean time has changed, black velvet collars trimmed with red piping. quiring whether the children had pulled. It is in another house where the light is dim; quiring whether the children had pulled through the mumps and were now ready through the mumps and were now ready through the half is faint; where to tackle the measles.

J. H. Sloan, who has an office in the Morse Down near the ferry the other day a as paleted as the faded; haggard old women First avenue, Policeman John Hoar, of Building, showed yesterday the largest black the East Sixty-seventh street station, made has which has been caught in Northern box with his head in his bands. He keep their way along the dark passages and who grope their way along the dark passages and who grope their way along the dark passages and who grope their way along the dark passages and who grope their way along the dark passages and who grope their way along the dark passages and who grope their way along the dark passages and who grope their way along the dark passages. the East Sixty-seventh stress station, made a pass which has been caught in Northern a spurt and caught a prisoner who had endeavored to run away from him. So much of his performance was in commuch of his perfo welfare. Then I saw this old woman- acquaintance. The mother cannot go out to re-the Editor Ex-President of the Tax Department Michael

Coleman, who has been appointed by Superintendent of Insurance Pierce to appraise the real estate of the New York Life Insurance

The mother cannot go out to to the sick babies work even if she were able, for besides the new baby there is a big sister of three years and a little sister aged twenty-two months to call almost soulless—do a strange thing, new baby there is a big sister of three years and a little sister aged twenty-two months to care for.

The husband fortunately belows to a locks

Indeed It Will Flats For that shot Policeman Hoan should be held strictly to account. It was not Jones, against whom the New York Life has stuffed to the highest policeman Hoan should be held strictly to account. It was not Jones against whom the New York Life has stuffed two others into his ragged pocket. Then she made the man eat a couple of cookies and Jones against whom the New York Life has stuffed two others into his ragged pocket. Contribution amounts to $5 a week. Out of been very liberal. Now appraisers have to be wanted to compliment her, but she blasted dental to her condition. To be sure, it is not a revolver.

The lesson cannot be too firmly impressed upon policemen that clubs and pistols are given to them only for judicious use, in emergencies such that reof that penniless man touched her they are not forced to the limits of a dun-

Had All They Wanted.

[From Harper's Bazar, 1 Friend-Your play was not a success, I hear. Unsuccessful Playwright-No: but I think the audience would have liked it if they had seen it all; they all went out after the first act.

Chappie's Retort. Said he, "You are a liar, Sir,"
And Chappie answered, "Pooh!
Id really much admire, Sir,
To be told something new."

Ready with Change. (Press Harper's Basar.)
"Can you change a (we-dollar bill?" asked

" Certainly," returned the druggist, courteensly. How'll you have it, in quinine pills or cough drops?"

Necessary for the Swim. 1 From (A. EporA.)
Totting-Well, I hope your new company is getting along swimmingly.
Dimling—It is. We watered the stock at the last directors' meeting.

It's hot. No, it isn't, it's cooling. RootBeer made with cools you off in five minutes. Don't be cheated with imitations.

> #5 cents a bottle. Grocers and Druggisis.

the Other.

with a Mite, Anyhow.

Nell Nelson Brings to Notice, Two More Touching Cases.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS

Prestourt asknow edged .... Long Beach Entertainment Carrie and Joccey Morschauser J. J. Koch Jack Pot Mand Wheeler ...

ind be happy." ling World" office for the Sick Baby
"I will, sir, and I'm a thousand times Fund should be directed to Cashier, fused me. They all thought it was a good Packages containing clothes, &c., should be addressed to Mrs. Roberts, 36 West Thirty-fifth street.

Any one whose contribution to the Sick Baby Fund is not acknowledged in these columns will confer a favor by notifying the Editor of "The Evening

LITTLE HOUSEKEEPER MOLLY.

More Touching Cases.

I had come to understand her ways, I write impossible stories and paint impossible Tammany Hall at Fordham is, I hear, to be minutes she hammered away, with enceteems with the real, incredibly stern if timed her by the watch, and for seven pictures when every phase of human exist-who a tew days ago was as strong as an relations without stint. She hoped I'd While at work in a seap factory he met with be sick, break my leg, lose my job and an accident shocking to imagine, that would it all? For dreadful purposes of their Mrs. Amelie Rives-Chanier, the authoress, have to sit on a bench in City Hall Park have killed a man of ordinary vitality. In attempting to raise a kettle of beiling of It rather upsets a man the first time, from the fire to the vat he lost his footing and fell to the floor under a sheet of burning fluid that drenched his head, face, body, limbs and that they might become imbued with its

While down at Newport, R. I., I noticed lent or demonstrative; on the contrary, that Mrs. Paran Stevens had changed the lent or demonstrative; on the contrary, literally flesh lined. It will be three months a penny grats-bug.

Ada, nine years old. the bearded Prefer and the ex-sockless style of the livery worn by her servants. It she is very quiet, and while she is blast- before the hero-for he has been herote wandering about. Something in the look not sick women, young babies or runabouts; The Buchess of Fife is devoted to her little baby and conducts herself like a model mother. She is frequently seen on the streets of Brighton with the could be frequently seen on the streets of Brighton with the could be for her wanderer.

The rooms are clean and tidy, thanks to the kindness of some compassionate woman, and they are pretty, too, for there are pictures on the wall, there are books on the bureau shelf. and, if there wasn't a mirror, you could find your beauty reflected from the bottom of the babies. tin basins. They are not the kind of people who grovel in the dus, or growl against fate. They are lighters, and they win. But they are down now, both of them, and there is something very pitiable about their helpless- Fund.

There is no use to publish the name or the Tothe Editor. address. It would hurt the man, who has already endured more than his share. They towards the Baby Sick Fund. will be on their feet again about the time you think oysters are eatable. In the mean time, if you really want to do a kindness you may put a bit of money in an envelope addressed to the cashier; you may bundle up some baby things and express them to 36 West Thirtynith street, or, if your credit is good, you might send a week's supply of groceries to the same place for Dr. Bauer's accident case. You have been sick, you have been a new baby,

Here's another possible case that you will help if you can. With the stub of an old broom and a leaky basin of turbid water, a little crippled girl was showing her womanly ductor entered a small back room on the rang the bell and said with a husky voice and fourth floor of a debilitated tenement in Pearl | quivering chin: Believe it you can that this wee six- my heart bleed to listen to year-old is the housekeeper in the foriorn littie kitchen which the family calls home, and where many cares rest heavily on the shoulders so fittle able to bear their weight. Mollie's father has been sleeping under the branches of a willow tree these two Summers, and the only legacy he left his faithful wife was a helpless family of three children, the oldest being little Molly, who was handi-

While the mother is away at work trying to ain bread money. Molly is left in charge of he two little ones, both very sick, one with neasles and the other with pneumonia. Before leaving she gives the child nurse directions about the babies, about their food, med-icine and drinks, about the door and the windows, the clothes to be washed and her own

Do you think you are in a condition to help her any? Really, now, can you sit down to your evening meal and relish it, knowing what these two sick babies suffer, what priheavy load the mother has to carry? Surely you are not mean. Dr. Leppa has the case in hand and is working hard to pull the babies through. He wants clothing, bedding and nannels, he wants money to pay for medicine, spot cash to lay in a stock of groceries and prepared foods, and he wants some dozen of you jolly, rollicking, charitably rich boys and girls t bundle up the books, toys and playthings you have outgrown and send them to Molly care of Mrs. Roberts.

THE WORLD: FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 24, 1891.

The Baby Fund will carry them over the If You Cannot Give the One, Give rough places until your aid comes. So hurry up your cakes as the boy once said to the NELL NELSON.

BENEFIT AT TANNERSVILLE.

Coming to the Rescue.

An entertainment for the benefit of THE EVENING WORLD'S Sick Babies' Fund will be given at Tannersville next Monday night. The entertainment is under the manage ment of Mr. Jacob Katz, who so nobly aided In the benefit at Asbury Park. Mr. Kate is assisted by Mrs. Levy, who was also prominent in the Asbury Park affair.

The guests at the Campbell House are taking a deep Interest in the entertainment. The programme will be a choice one, a number of artists having volunteered their services. Mr. Haines has kindly donated the use of his payillon. of his pavilies.

It is premised that the benefit will surpass any of the kind ever attempted.

Thoughtful Little Amy.

I am a little girl eleven years old. Mamme often reads to me about the sick babies, so thought I would try and collect something for 1.00 thought? would try and collect some thing for 1.00 kind friends, who were willing and glad to help such a good cause, $4.25. Hoping the above small amount will give some dear little 25 baby a good time, I remain, yours truly, 1.00 20 Washington street, South Norwalk, Conn.

Success to You, Maud.

To the Editor

I have collected $1 for the Sick Bables plan. Inclosed you will find $1. Yours truly, South Norwalk, Conn., July 22.
P. S.—I will try, with the help of my friend
Amy Grubb, to collect more next week.

Bless All Such.

To the Editor Inclosed please find $1-50 cents from Carrie and 50 cents from Jocey, hoping it will help some poor babes. May God bless and keep them and all those that help them. With best wishes, Carrie and Josef Morschauser. Poughkeepsle, July 21.

More for Little Jackie.

Inclosed please find $1 for poor little Jackie whose sad case you published in Tuesday's Evening World. Will also send some clothes to Mrs. R. for Idm. brooklyn, July 22.

Help for Little Jackle.

Inclosed pleas: find $1 to be used to help relieve "poor little Jackie," whose pitable condition was so graphically described in last Tuesday's issue of THE EVENING WORLD. From T. H. Es.

Made with a Penny Grab-Bag. To the Editor Hoptng it will do some good I send you 50

Were There More Jack Pots. To the Editor:

Flease find inclosed $1. As this is an old the papers.

poter debt, I think it would do some poor suflever more good than subscriber.

JACK POT.

SOLUGIO

Auxilia Papers.

Jack Pot.

Solugio

Catarri.

Twenty-Four Quarts of Milk. Inclosed find the wherewith to furnish the sick babies with twenty-four quarts of nice fresh milk. Yours truly, S. O. H.

Far Rockaway's Bright Girls. "I'm very sorry," returned the bride. "I't tell cook to speak to the liveryman about it.

Inclosed please find check, N. P. B., for $10. which I hope will help the Sick Babtes' Fund.

Indeed It Will Help.

Respectfully, A. M. MURPHY. marry Maud. Arthur—He promised her he wouldn't smoke while they were engaged. Maggie's Mite. Just a mite, hoping it will help a little in your beautiful work. God bless you.

Inclosed please find $1 more for the poor and sick little ones. Yours respectfully

From Elsie and Isabel. For the Fund for Sick Babies, $1, from

More from L. W.

RESIR and ISABEL. Linda L's Remembrance. Inclosed please find 25 cents to aid the sic

LINDA L. Five Dollars from Alice B. M. Inclosed find $5 for THE EVENING WORLD'S

ALICE B. M. Thanks to May Kompff. May Kompff sends the inclosed $2.50 and you have been a runabout, and need not be told what to select in the way of catables.

But do something, please?

Clara—So I do; but it will be so nice to have him teach the over seath.

A Soft-Hearted Banker. [From Texas Siftings.]
A beggar told a harrowing tale of woe to a instincts yesterday when an Eveniso World wealthy New York banker. Finally the latter Kick this fellow into the street, he make

For Future Reference. He-Is your father wealthy?

Ho-Is he old? -Very. -Mother dead? - Yes. -1s your temper good? -They say so.

Highest of all in Leavening Power. - Latest U. S. Gov't Food Report.

Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

RARE PRESENCE OF MIND. [From Towar Strifage.]

Mr. Stumppe is in a hurry.

A Prominent Personage.

goes along with his nose in the air?

Hogg-'Sh! He's a mighty important per

A Robust Angel. [From Texas Siftings.]

Just Began Housekeeping.

Why He Was Anxious,

[From Brooklyn Life ]

Marie-Why is Mr. Puffer in such a hurry to

Wanted the Earth. "Did you ever go up in a balloon?"

"What were your sensations?"
"Oh, same as usual. I wanted the earth.

Familiarity that Bred Contempt.

"Well," said father-in-law, after mother-in

A Slight Saving Possible.

his appetite and he'll be all right.

Economical Wire—Get him on his feet, doctor; but—er—never mind the other.

Not Much on It

A Short-Sighted Man.

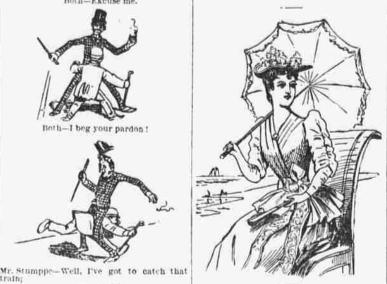

In the Dark.

[From Harper's Bazar. "This liver is awful, Maud," said Mr. New

Fads, Fancies and Fashions That Delight the Gentler Sex. The Marlow Shirt-Miss Frelinghuy

sen's Interest in Educational Affairs-Corselets Much Favored of cotton cheviot, in Oxford or Cambridge mixtures, or of plain white linen. It is made exactly like a gentleman's shirt, with a shield front, high yoke at the back, shirtsleeves and wristsbands and Piccadilly collar. Gold, enamelled or lewelled shirt study and a fourin-hand or Ascot tie complete the outfit, which is intended, of course, for negligee wear, with dark tweed or serge skirts.

Miss Frelinghuysen, daughter of the late ecretary, is greatly interested in educational and religious affairs. She is very fond of the kindergarten and visits the little tots often to listen to their object lessons and to encourage them with her sweet smile. She is a tall, The Loguacious Passencer Interslender girl, dressed in half mourning.

this year for a reaction in favor of short dinners as against long ones. The Prince or South Side line," said the loquacious Wales greatly inclines to this line, and un- passenger to the driver of the night car, important trivialities in the way of a bonne bouchs originally introduced for the purpose of lengthening out a dinner are now discarded. This is a boon to diners-out and they Jawkins-Who is that man yonder who are grateful to those hostesses who arrange their menus in accordance with this view. Formerly Wednesdays and Saturdays were considered the best nights for giving dinners on account of the House not sitting on those nights, but now so many country members go out of town on Saturday for a couple of days that it equalizes matters and places every night but Monday night on much the long in the state of the state every night but Monday night on much the same footing. Dinner-giving on Sunday Miss Smith-How do you like your husband? seems to be largely on the increase. Mrs. Newhusband—Oh, he is an angel if yer there was one. Yesterday morning he ate our eggs that I boiled for his breakfast.

Some of the new dress bonnets are most brilliant with aigrettes and passementeries, mingled in artistic fashion with tuile and other diaphanous textiles. A glimpse of gold oliage or gold thistles, and silver dandellon blows, appears among the fleecy clouds of gauge or spangled net. New cap bonnets are sent over, to be worn a little back upon the head, and very fluffy masses of hair are then required above the forehead. Snow-white spirea with pink hyacinths appear on lovely garden fete caps.

Corselets are much favored, but those made corselets are much favored, but those made on the bodice lining, with a simulated blouse girls." Been driving for the company on the bodice lining, with a simulated blouder above, are more satisfactory as to fit, while long?"

Oh, 'bout twenty-two years." Swiss bodices, with the full material abov and the sleeves amply gathered. A few fish- UNCLE STEVENSON'S BRIGHT BOY. wife tunics have appeared, but drawn back so tightly that the shape of the plain skirt is He Learns as Fast as a Horse Can preserved.

The Association of Wemen Painters and law had returned from a visit to the young sculptors, formed in France by Mmc. Leon says the Brandon Buckson, and as Col. Bertaux, gave on the 4th inst, its first bansculptors, formed in France by Mmc. Leon what aer telurned from a visit to the young purple, "what sort of a fellow is John?"
"I'm afraid he's not good for much," said teth anniversary of the founding of the Assertion. The ladies present numbered over clation. The ladies present numbered over the visit of the colonel, "I hear that you intend to give your son an angel of the colonel of the colonel of the colonel of the clation. The ladies present numbered over the colonel of the "I'm afraid he's not good for much," said mother-in-law. "He reminds me very much 250. Among them was Mile. Marcelle Lance-lot, to whom the jury of the Salon has just "Dat's" awarded a second medal of honor for sculp, ture. A few gentlemen had been invited by the ladies; but the toasts were given by the hostesses, who all spoke with fluency and grace. In her speak, the speak with fluency and grace. In her speak, the second medal of honor for sculp, the second medal of honor for sculp, the second medal of honor for sculp, and I termined dat my son shault trabble har-foot ober de same hard road dat I grace. In her speak, the second medal of honor for sculp, the [From Harper's Basar.]
Physician—I'll give him something that'll get him on his feet, and then we'll increase ture. A few gentlemen had been invited by grace. In her speech the President begged all fathers felt so. Is your boy learning them all to remember that, above all things, they had the privilege and pleasure of being women.

The complexion of the Paris woman has the complexion of the Paris woman has to his udder aunt that libs fifty mile undergone a noticeable change for the better. [From Brooklyn L(fs.]] Fred-How do you like the table at your new hoarding-house? Is there anything to An Accoptable Mite.

An Accoptable Mite.

To the Editor

I to to the Paris woman has undergone a noticeable change for the better, not altogether attributable to her art in applying artificial tints to her once sallow epidermis. The lady of social place lives like of the Sum the Will to the intention of the Paris woman has undergone a noticeable change for the better, not altogether attributable to her art in applying artificial tints to her once sallow epidermis. The lady of social place lives like of the Sum the Editor

I to are eaten, transforming the sallow French complexion to ivory whiteness among the [From Texas Siftings.] She-What do you mean, sir, by speaking to elegantes.

me in the street. I want you to understand This is Rose Coghlan's answer to a question that I am a respectable married lady.

He—Excuse me, but I am so short-sighted that at first glance I cannot distinguish a married lady from any other lady. as to how she preserves her beauty : " Not by wearing a steel corset, I assure you, although ome paper did declare 1 fastened myself up in a cage. Fancy how one would feel! But my weight never varies. I keep my flesh off There are some people that talk without like an active brain for reducing fiesh. Then, thinking. Mrs. Beasley is that sort of a too, I never drink while I am eating. I bewoman. Her husband, while bringing in a lieve that drinking with your meals makes pitcher of beer one night last week, dropped a you grow chunky. I think American women drink too much soda and apollinaris." " I can't find that piece of money that I've lost," he said, growing around the hall floor, when Mrs. Beasley opened the door.

"Of course you can't. If you look for it out here in the dark. You are the stupidest man in Texas. Why don't you bunt for it here in the light, where you can see? Nobody can and anything out there in the dark." It was about time some legislation was enacted to benefit the English laundress. Without the help of Pearline, Throughout the country the wages are dis- is a wash that has been done ample, for her week's work, crowded into two With hard work. The clothes or three days, will only earn $1.25; a young have been wrenched and twist girl for similar work only 62 cents. The smaller and more unscrupulous employers ed; the woman who washed deliberately encourage the practice of them is tired out. Pearling compressing the work into a few days, they know that when the evening comes the women will be anxious to get home to their familes, and will, therefore, work at express speed, so they pile on too easily to call it work. It the work and refuse to let the women go till gets twice as much done; it the done. In this way they squeezecut of the woman's necessities two days' work for one day's pay. When at length the woman Beware of imitations, 232 JAMES PYLENT one day's pay. When at length the out is allowed to leave the laundry, tired out with her double day's work—from u in the FIVE FREE EXCURSIONS shops shut, and among the very poor, who Next week. Free Tickets in live from hand to mouth, this means that she must go supportess to bed.

HE HAD CATABBB FOR THIRTY-FIVE YEARS

For Twenty Years Mr. IIch Doctored for It, but all

He is One of the Leading Citizens of College Point, and He Told a D. porter How Drs. McCoy and Wild. man Restored His Hearing and Health When His Case Buffled Other Physicians.

Everybody in College Point knows George He is one of the leading citizens at the place use lived there almost half a contury. Unli-cars ago he kept the leading bakers in town, he transferred the business to his spon-in-law. Nowadays.

In transferred the business to his son-in-law. Mr lich for the past thirty-three years has kept a coa and wood yard in College Point, and he lives on Thirteenth street, near Second avenue, in the pretty Long Island town. He is known yet as Baker lich, while his prother, David lich, who is put as fat and joily as he is, keeps the principa butcher shop, and the two brothers are designated affect the British style of dress. It is made affect the British style of dress. It is made george. Be to id a reporter a very constant of the control of the principal co

DOCTORS McCOY AND WILDMAN 5 East 42d street, near Grand Central Depot, and Broadway, corner 14th street, New York, and By Muttague street, Brockyn, where all curable cases aye treated with success. If you live at a distance write for a symptom blank. Address all mail to 2 East 42d street. Office hours -D to 11 A. M., 2 tos P. M., 7 to 9 P. M. Asily. Sondays, 9 to 12 A. M.

HIS FIRST REGULAR TRIP.

views the Old Driver With Instructive Results. "This is my first regular trip on the according to the Chicago Tribune. "I've been a West Sider for a year. Before that I lived on the North Side. Before that I lived in a half a dozen suburbs. 'Move Every May,' is my motto. A man wants a change."

trades. "Twon't do for a man to stay too long in a thing and get rusty."

'That's so," said the driver.

'Sometimes I'm up: sometimes I'm down. I've had my carriage and pair, and I've tried the walking. I'm down now. But I ain't kicking. 'Variety's the spice of life, 'you know."

'That's so,' replied the driver.

'Driving must be mighty monotonous, 'Tis, ain't it?"

'Oh, so-so."

'Any money in it?"

'Bout $75 a month."

'Got anything laid up?"

'Got anything laid up?"
'House and lot."

'I've been offered seven-five hundred dollars."
"Got a family?"
"I've raised eight—five boys and three

Uncle Stevenson, an old negro, had come to cut the grass in the front yard,

A washout

the SUNDAY PRESS.